- Your dissertation in a trans-regional research project tailored to your needs with a highly engaged and ambitious professor
- Field: finance/accounting
- Your task:
  You, professor Sievers and his team are excited to work as investigators in two sub-projects of the new trans-regional Collaborative Research Center TRR 266 “Accounting for Transparency” (https://accounting-for-transparency.de/) funded by the German Research Foundation (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft–DFG).
  Typical research topics include determinants (e.g., disclosure choices of financial and non-financial information such as environmental reports) of firms’ cost of capital and firm value, Mergers & Acquisitions, and many more.
  As a team of more than 80 senior and junior researchers from Paderborn University, Mannheim University, Humboldt-University Berlin, LMU Munich, ESMT Berlin, Frankfurt School of Finance & Management, Goethe University and WHU Otto Beisheim School of Management, we will conduct broad and ambitious research on the determinants and consequences of firm and regulatory transparency.
- Your benefits:
  1. You work closely with a highly engaged professor
  2. You can choose to work on site or from a remote location with regular check-in calls and feedback loops
  3. You have the opportunity to work at the university in positions ranging from 25%-75%
- Your profile:
  You have successfully completed your Master’s degree in Business Administration, Economics or Computer Science ideally with a major field of study in Financial Accounting or Finance. Ideally, you have knowledge in handling (big) data sets with, e.g., SAS, STATA, MATLAB/GAUSS, R, PERL and/or PYTHON. In addition to your finance and financial accounting knowledge, you have (basic) econometric and mathematical skills and are able to communicate effortlessly in English. Finally, you are a great team player, have an independent way of thinking and show a high level of commitment.
- Your contact:
  In case you are interested please send your CV to Professor Dr. Sönke Sievers (soenke.sievers@upb.de). You will then be contacted to talk about these opportunities in more detail.

In case you might consider the above-mentioned teaching position in addition to your work on your dissertation the following applies:

Applications of women are particularly welcome and, in case of equal qualifications and experiences, will receive preferential treatment according to the North Rhine - Westphalian Equal Opportunities Act (LGG), unless there are preponderant reasons to give preference to another applicant. Part-time employment is, in principle, possible. Applications from disabled people with appropriate suitability are explicitly welcome. This also applies to people with equal opportunities in accordance with the German social law SGB IX. We invite you to send your detailed application documents in electronic form. Please see the official job posting in German here:

Prof. Dr. Sönke Sievers
Fakultät für Wirtschaftswissenschaften
Universität Paderborn
Warburger Str. 100
33098 Paderborn
soenke.sievers@uni-paderborn.de www.upb.de/accounting